Program Notes by the Composer

This popular Hymn which dates back to the Middle Ages was composed by the German monk Hermann of Reichenau. It has been sung as part of the Daily Office since the 13th Century, with a text dating back as far as the 11th Century. This setting juxtaposes a mournful polyphonic motive with a solemn hymn-like refrain that gradually builds in intensity. Ad te clamamus reveals different sides of an earnest cry for help from beyond: the complexity of personal confusion, the simplicity of being pushed beyond one's own means, and the urgency that increases when the help is not apparent.

The Text Used In This Setting

Ad te clamamus, exsules filii Iava.
Ad te suspiramus, gementes et flentes,
in hac lacrimarum valle.
Eia ergo, Advocata nostra illos tuos misericordes oculos ad nos converte.
Et Jesum, benedictum fructum ventris tui,
nobis post hoc exsilium ostende.
O clemens! O pia! O dulcis.

Words excerpted from the Latin hymn
Salve Regina by Hermann of Reichenau
