

Performance Notes

- Aim for an earthy and full-bodied tone.
- Some of the rhythms don't match up exactly, and that's okay! It's supposed to feel organic.
- When thigh slaps and claps come in, make it gradual. Start with a few singers and let it inspire others around them to start.
- Keep the narrative in mind (see the program notes), and have fun!

Program Notes

Paul John Rudoi's arrangement of Yonder Come Day deepens the traditional Georgia Sea Islands tune with a narrative journey. Through other well known spirituals, including Hush, Hush, Somebody's Calling My Name, Steal Away, and Swing Low, Sweet Chariot, we move forward and upward, hoping for a better day.

Lyrics

Oh day, yonder come day.
Day done broke inna my soul, yonder come day.
Good mornin' day, yonder come day.
A brand new day, yonder come day.
Oh come on child,

Hush, hush, somebody's callin' my name.
Hush, somebody's callin' my name.
Hush, hush, somebody's callin' my name.
Oh my Lord, oh my Lord what shall I do?

Oh day, yonder come day.
I was on my knees, yonder come day.
When I heard him say, yonder come day.
Oh come on child,

Steal away, steal away, steal away to Jesus.
Steal away, steal away, I ain't got long to stay here.
Swing low, sweet chariot, comin' for to carry me home.
Swing low, sweet chariot, comin' for to carry me home.

Oh day, yonder come day.
Good mornin' day, yonder come day.
A brand new day, yonder come day.
Oh come on child, yonder come day.
Day done broke inna my soul, yonder come day.
